IV. Signature and Certification

I certify that the information on this application is accurate and complete. I have arranged for a transcript and letter of support to be sent to the Student Exchange Representative at the host institution.

I have reviewed the guidelines for the administration of this program including transfer of grades and any additional program fees. I understand that I am responsible for obtaining a transcript from the host institution and sending it to my home institution registrar. I will maintain an open line of communication with my home institution's Student Exchange Representative and my home institution advisor.
