

2019 New American Colleges and Universities
Collaboration, Growth, and Innovation (CGI) Grant Program

2019 Application Deadline: Friday, February 1, 2019
Anticipated Notification Deadline: March 1, 2019

Submission Guidelines:

Please email completed application (3 pages, maximum, not including letters of support) to Michelle Apuzzio, Assistant Director, NAC&U:

apuzzio@newamericancolleges.org

The application must include:

- A letter of support from the applicant's dean or vice president for academic affairs
- A letter of commitment from collaborators

Name of Applicant (PI):

Discipline:

Institution:

Project Collaborators [Co-PI(s)]:

In addition to applicant, applications must include at least one other faculty member from an NAC&U institution.

List name(s) and institution(s):

Project Description: (500 words):

Expected Outcomes that Benefit NAC&U:

Applicants should comment on how the proposal will address the goals of the CGI program, as described in the CGI program description.

Timeline:

Funds will be dispersed in March 2019; all activities for this grant period are to be completed by December 31, 2019.

Please describe the estimated timeline for activities, including proposed travel dates, activity lengths, etc. as necessary for each budget item.

Budget:

The maximum permitted total request is $3,000, but we encourage projects to fall in the $1,000 - $2,000 range. In general, capital expenses and salary/stipends for PIs are not permitted. Please provide an estimate of expenses in the categories below, breaking out distinct items on separate lines as necessary. For each category, please provide a short description of the intended use for funds (e.g. "Travel to visit Prof. X's class at University of Example.") Further details may be provided in the project description.

Category	Amount	Description
Travel	$
Field Work	$
Supplies	$
Other (please describe)	$
Total	$	